Bulgaria is one of Europe's most attractive destinations for film productions, due to its low costs, but having much to offer. As Nature is right around the corner, shooting in Bulgaria provides you with the opportunity to reach both urban & nature locations in just one shooting day.

Bulgaria has a temperate-continental climate with moderate features which is characteristic for Central Europe , with 4 distinct seasons. Abundant snowfalls may occur throughout the country from December to mid-March, especially if you are in the mountainous areas.

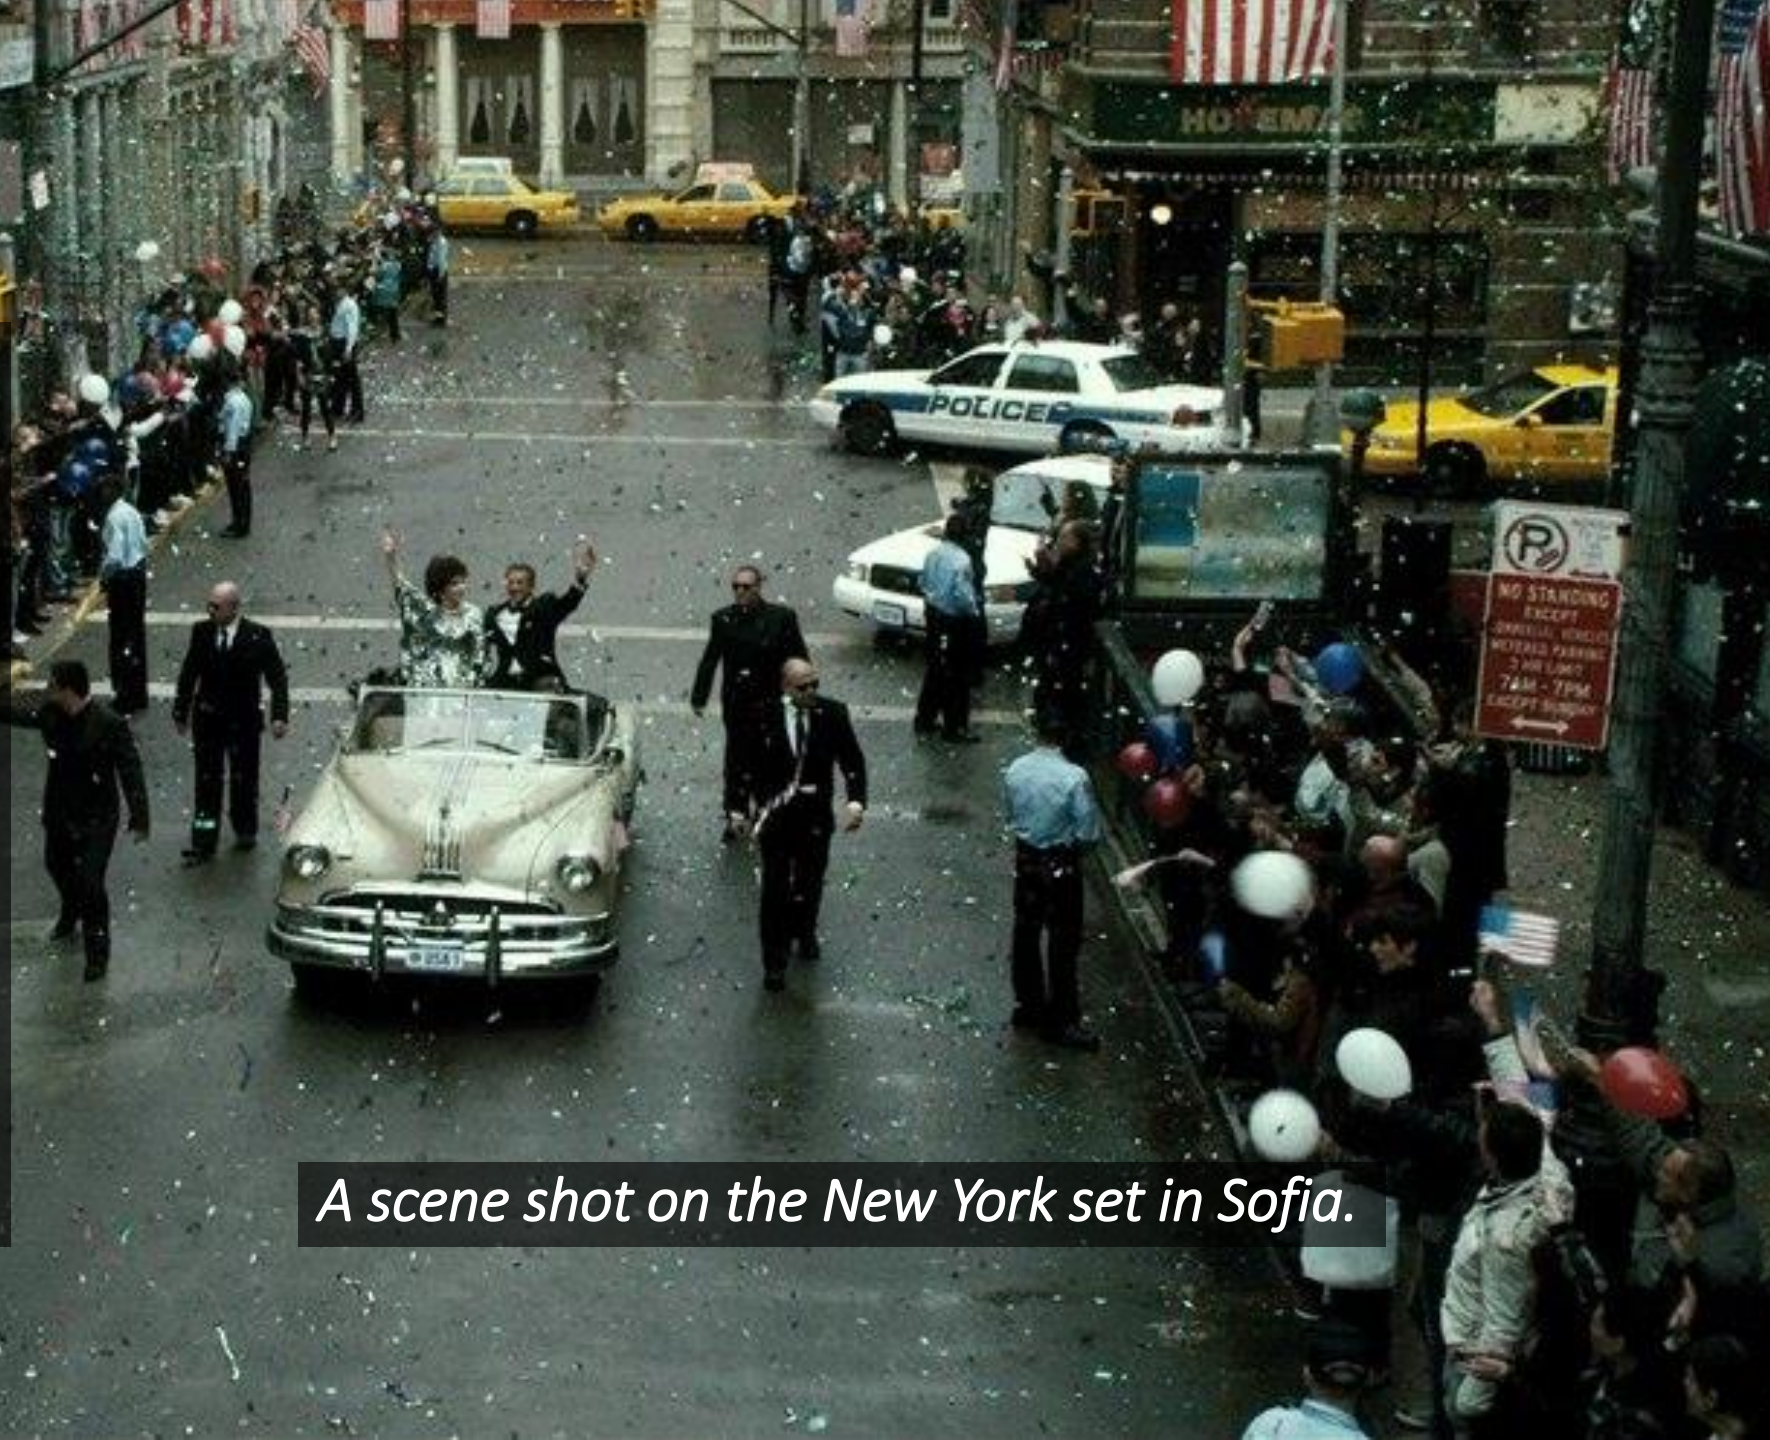

EUROPEAN LOOKING CASTING WITH A GREAT VARIETY OF NEW AND UNIQUE FACES.

Bulgaria has a long history in cinema production and nowadays holds one of the biggest selection of film sets in Eastern Europe: Roman, Arabic, New York City, London, Wild West, Middle East and etc. Bulgaria also offers stunning landscapes, urban architecture, various interiors, picturesque mountains and coastal line.

An aerial night photograph of Sofia, Bulgaria, showcasing a cityscape covered in snow. The central focus is a large, illuminated classical building with a portico of columns. To its right, a smaller, ornate structure with a tower is also lit up. In the background, a prominent golden-domed church stands out against the dark sky. The city's lights create a warm glow, contrasting with the cool blue tones of the night and snow.
